“AN EVENING OF SHOW AND TELL AND HOMEBREW”

Wednesday 26 May 2004

Ragchew and Fleamarket: 19:30

Club meeting: 20:00

St. Ignatius of Loyola Parish Church

4455 West Broadway (corner of Terrebonne) in N.D.G. - Montreal

Come on out to the sights and sounds of the club's annual Show and Tell meeting. Its an excellent opportunity to touch base with your fellow hams before the summer break and to see what others have been doing lately with amateur radio. Take the opportunity and bring something to show and to share with the group and contribute to this evening's success. Be sure to come out and take part in what is always a popular and entertaining evening.

A WORD FROM THE PRESIDENT

Hello,

First off, you will read elsewhere in this issue of a change in the Board of Directors. I would like to again thank David Malette for his service to the club and welcome Bob Paknys to the board.

Planning for the APCO conference in Montreal in August is underway and we are looking for persons to help man a booth and a demonstration station. If you are interested please let me know. Please also read about the various other events which are going on and let us know if you can volunteer some time.

This month's meeting will be the last meeting of the year and is the annual show and tell. Hopefully many of you will have some interesting items to show off. Thanks to Sheldon and Vern for taking over for me at the last meeting as they will have to do again this month as a scheduling conflict has again occurred - as it has for every May meeting for many years.

With the weather warming up I do hope that you can all get out and enjoy it - and bring your hand
